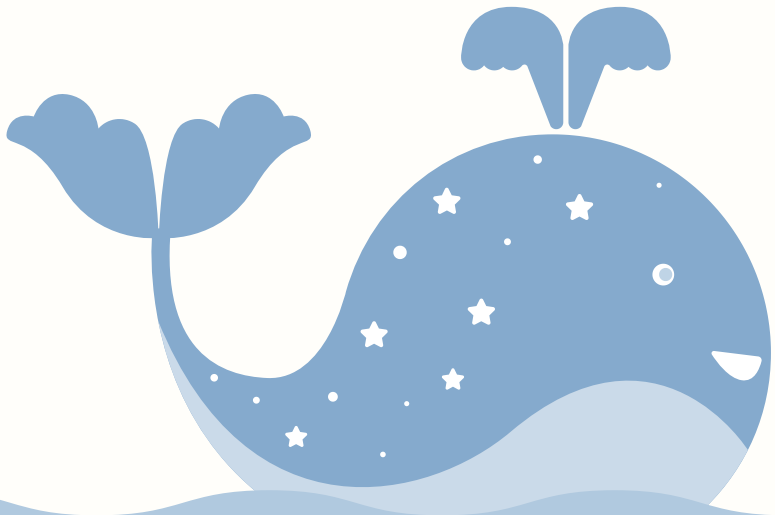
Baby Room

In the Baby Room, our main goal is to create a nurturing environment where our little ones can explore safely and engage with the world around them.

We aim to help them build relationships with both staff and their peers, while also beginning to understand their emotions and learn how to manage them.


Communication is encouraged through sign language, single words, songs, and stories to further enhance their development.